

Let us Pray

Let us pray for the whole Race of Mankind, particularly for His Holy Catholick Church.
And in a more especial manner, for that pure and Apostolical part of it established within these Realmes. Herein for his most Excellent Majesty Our Sovereign Lord George by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, defender of the Faith. Over all Persons, and in all causes as well Ecclesiastical, as Civil within his Dominions. Supreme.
And for all the Royal Family. Pray we likewise for His Excellency the Governor, and His Lord the Lieutenant Govern^r of this His Majesty's Settlement and for those appointed under their trust. That all and each of them may serve truly and Faithfully to the Glory of God, and well governing His People by being a Terror to the Evil doers only, but a praise to them that do well.

To these our prayers for future mercies, let us add our Praises and thanksgivings for those already received, for our Creati-on, preservation, for all the Necessaries as well as the comforts of this life, and for all the hopes of a better purchased by the merits of Jesus X^t. Whom in humble to our infirmities has taught and commanded us thus to Pray,

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; thy Kingdom come; thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily Bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from Evil; for thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen

22
The Place of God, which passeth all Understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing, God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.
Amen.

Almighty and Everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve.
Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy: forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things ^{we are} which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus thy Son our Lord. Who desirest us to call upon thee ^{say and}

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses. As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom. The Power, and the Glory. For ever and ever —
Amen

Grant we beseech thee Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears may through thy Grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living to the honour and praise of thy name: through Jesus Christ Our Lord
Amen

your departure has been severely felt, and will continue to be so for a long time, it is I he feared that your successor has not the the courage to follow your steps, nor head enough to chalk out any general plan of policy of his own for the good of the colony. — I remain Dear Sir yours truly Wm. Sorell R.K.

Almighty God from Whom all Power is derived.
We humbly beseech thee to bless Thy servant The Lieutenant Governor of this Territory, and grant, that He may use the Supreme Power Which our Sovereign Lord The King hath committed into his hand with Justice and Mercy, according to thy blessed Will for the protection of this People, and the true Religion established amongst us.
Enlighten him with thy Grace Preserve him by thy providence, and incompass him with Thy favours.

Bless we beseech Thee, the whole Council direct their Consultations to the advancement of Thy Glory, The Good of thy Church, The Honour of His Sacred Majesty, and the welfare of this Territory.

We entreat Thee most gracious Lord, to prosper with thy blessing the special Means adopted by the Supreme Authority, to preserve the Lives lives and property of the People? from the wanton and cruel attacks of the Aboriginal inhabitants of this Island. And as thou hast made all Men, and hastest nothing that Thou hast made; nor wouldest the Death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live: Have mercy. We beseech thee Lord, on these benighted and miserable fellow creatures, and so overrule the present measures by Thy glorious Providence that they may be the means of bringing them within the reach of moral and Religious instruction.

Take away from them all ignorance, malice and hardness of heart, and enable them to partake of the Blessings of The Gospel. And, that we may confidently trust, in Thy protecting Mercy. Graft in our hearts, the Love of Thy Name. Increate in us true Religion, that we henceforth obediently walking in Thy Holy Commandments, and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto Thee, our Sacrifice, Praise, and Thanksgivings, and so being armed, with Thy defence we may be preserved evermore from all Perils, to the glory of Thy Holy Name. Grant this O merciful Father For Jesus ~~Christ~~ is sake our only Saviour and Redeemer

— Amen —
